Thank you, I did submit another new site for a new number as well, whenever you get the chance to check the r9landsubmit. The site name is Port of Los Angeles Wilmington Marine Services

Morning,

The Project Manager is the one to fill in the Active Project list. Have a great weekend

Hello Dyanna, who updates the active projects list? I have another new site and I did not see the three new sites you and Jan had so graciously provided me with new numbers for either. Please let me know at your earliest convenience.

Thank you
